Tournament Series Stop #10, which was held at Dudek Lanes, ended with a total of 93 entries.

We want to thank Scott Mansi and his staff for making us feel welcomed, as well as everyone who supported the events held at his center throughout this past Tournament Series season, which averaged over 100 entries per event!

Congratulations to Michael Smith for winning this event, averaging 151.4. Michael also rolled one of the three 200+ games of the tournament, a 206 game in which he threw 6 strikes in a row!!

Jayce Napolitano finished second in the tournament, 19 pins behind the winning score. Matt Perreault, who was the tournament leader for two days, ended up in third place.

Bill Greene opened the Friday night shift with a 210 game, in which he rolled 6 strikes in the first 7 frames.

Mark Parker Jr. had the highlight game of the weekend. Mark tossed an all-mark 218 game. He dropped at least 9 pins on every first ball of the game, including the fill ball in the 10th frame!

We had some fantastic tournaments this season we look
